Surviving the Centuries: Moments of Crisis and Reform in the Church

Wednesday, June 12, 2019 @ 9:00 am - 1:00 pm

Presenter: Sister Mary Ann Strain, CP

The history of the Church is long, complex and not without problems. Sister Mary Ann will offer an interactive presentation that will open up three windows into the past to look at three of moments of crisis that have relevance for us today. In each instance we will ask four questions.

1. What happened and why?
2. How did the Church respond to the crisis?
3. How has that historical response shaped us as a Church?
4. What can we learn?

This program includes lunch.

Sister Mary Ann Strain, CP is the Program Director here at OLC.
