

An Open Invitation to all women of the parish for a retreat weekend

My name is Gina Dolan and I am a 30+ year-long parishioner of St. Paul parish.

I've been on parish council, have taught CCD, ministered to the needy by delivering food, still sing with the Contemporary Music Ensemble, and have been a promoter of weekend retreats and programs for Our Lady of Calvary Retreat Center in Farmington for over 20 years.

Our parish women's retreat is coming up in January 18-20, 2019. This is a wonderful opportunity to spend time with other Catholic Christian women from Glastonbury to "retreat", reflect and relax during this powerful, grace-filled weekend.

With the frenetic pace of the holidays over by then, it is important for us to give ourselves the gift of time to energize our souls. I can promise you that this retreat weekend will strengthen your relationship with God and that you will leave the weekend feeling truly blessed from your experience.

I can also promise you will experience the unique warmth and sense of belonging that is the hallmark of the ministry of Our Lady of Calvary Retreat Center for over 60 years. I pray that you will consider this opportunity.
