Our Lady of Calvary

RETREAT CENTER

Women's Retreat 2023

Our Theme

ALL CREATION GROANS IN LABOR PAINS EVEN UNTIL NOW

Our retreat theme invites us to explore how we might see “the sufferings of the present” as the birth pains of a new Creation. Paul reminds us that the agony we experience is the very place where hope is born.

God has chosen us to become co-creators in fashioning “new heavens and new earth” in this present moment.

How do we move through and beyond the painful events that are part of our reality?

How do we allow the difficulties and darkness to lead us to a new way of being with one another, with ourselves and with creation?

How do we move through and beyond the painful events of the past to recognize God’s truth, “I am doing something new?” (Isaiah 43:19)

Join us for a weekend to ponder these questions and enter into deep listening to the still voice of God in our hearts and the reflections of one another.
